Charges Professor Was Not Doing 'Proper Work' While Visiting the Soviet Union

By HENRY TANNER

MOSCOW, Nov. 15—Valerian A. Zorin, Deputy Foreign Minister, declared today that the case of Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn was for Soviet authorities to decide.

Mr. Zorin asserted that the Yale University expert on Soviet affairs, who is being held pending charges, was not doing his proper work as a scholar while in the Soviet Union.

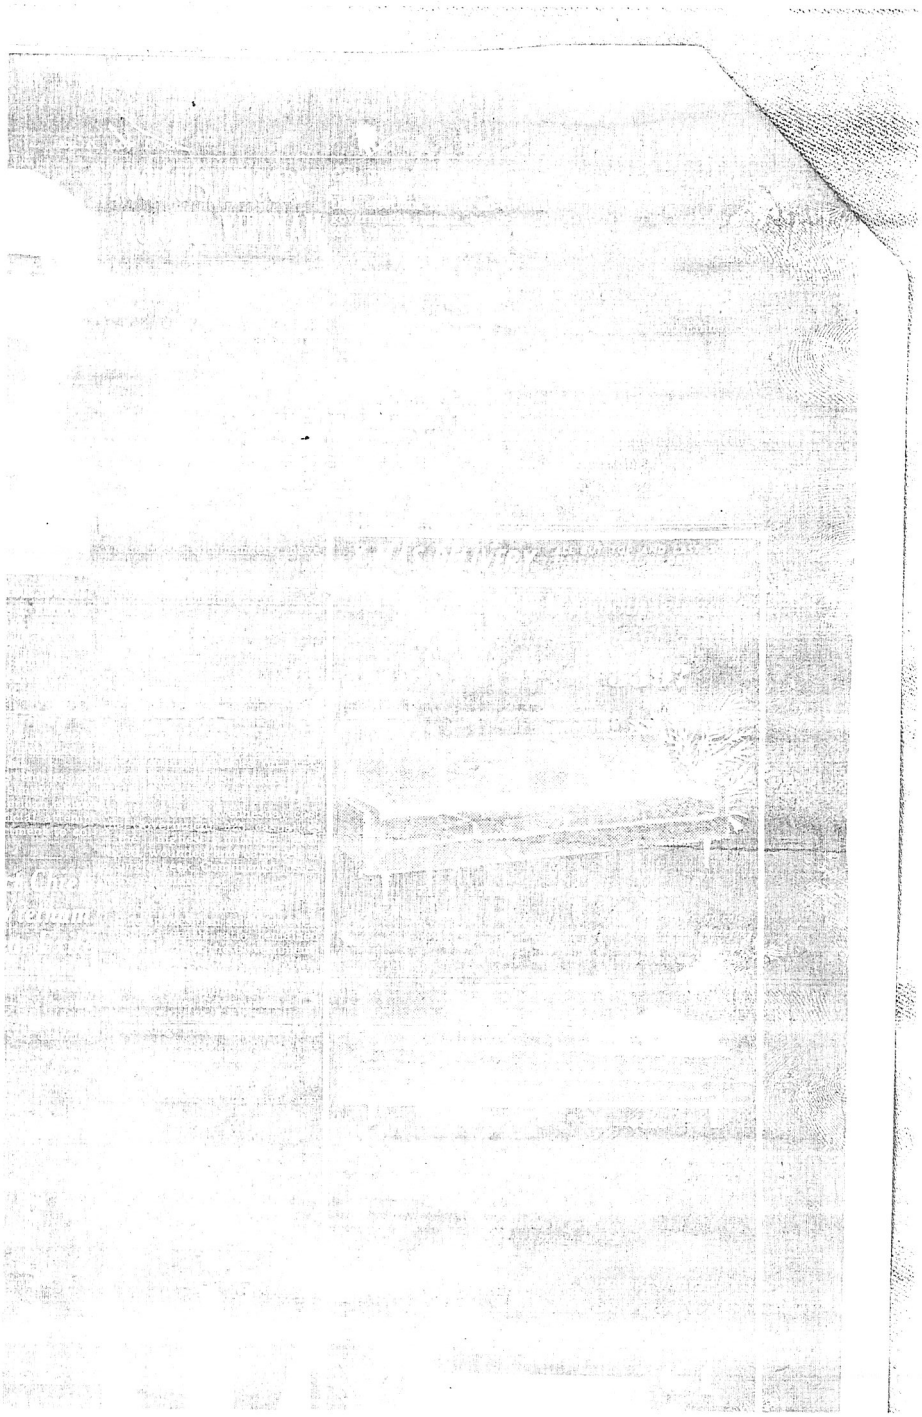
In talks with reporters the Soviet official criticized the United States Government for having arrested Mr. Barghoorn, particularly because, he said, Professor Barghoorn came and the Soviet-American cultural exchange agreement.

The fourth consecutive day of silence by the United States Embassy here on the case continued today. Embassy officials declined to comment on the statement by Mr. Zorin.

A Department spokesman in Washington said that the case was being handled here out of the Moscow Embassy.

The detention of Professor Barghoorn, a specialist in Russian history and politics, was announced by Soviet authorities last Saturday. He was arrested on Wednesday.

Mr. Zorin, who is a member of the Communist Party Central Committee, made his statement at a meeting with correspondents after a speech to the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet Parliament.

He said that the Soviet Union had its own laws and that the Soviet authorities would act in accordance with them.


Mr. Zorin said that Professor Barghoorn had been arrested on espionage charges.
